Scholarship appeal description:

Freshman academic scholarship awards are highly competitive. Each admission application is carefully reviewed and scholarship decisions are based on an overall assessment of the information contained in the original application materials. We have had to make very difficult decisions to select the overall strongest applicants from an extremely competitive applicant pool.

Students appealing a scholarship decision should provide new and compelling academic information that was not previously included in their applications, or extenuating personal circumstances that they feel warrant a change in the scholarship decision.

Please note: Due to the highly competitive applicant pool and competitive number of scholarship awards, it is uncommon for us to be able to change our original decision. Only rarely, when presented with extremely compelling new information, are we able to change a student's scholarship decision.

Components of a complete scholarship appeal:

What factors do you consider when a student submits a scholarship appeal?

Students appealing a scholarship decision would do so on the basis of extenuating personal circumstances or substantial new academic information not previously included in their application materials. We consider the following factors when reviewing an application:

- High school rank percentile. (Students from non-ranking schools and those with GED or other high school equivalency scores are given full consideration.)
- Grade point average.
- ACT or SAT scores.
- Strength of the curriculum through high school graduation, including courses that exceed the core subject requirements and any advanced courses (i.e., honors, AP, IB, college level).

Secondary review factors

- Evidence of exceptional achievement, aptitude, or personal accomplishment not reflected in the academic record or standardized test scores.
- A pattern of steady improvement in academic performance.
- Participation in extracurricular college preparatory programs (e.g., MEP, PSEO, Talent Search, UMTYMP, Upward Bound, and other programs).
- Evidence of exceptional talent or ability in artistic, scholarly, leadership, or athletic performance.
- ACT/SAT writing test results.
- Outstanding high school or community involvement.
- Size of graduating class.
- Work experience, paid or unpaid.
- Family attendance or employment at the University of Minnesota.
- First-generation college student.
- Evidence of exceptional motivation, maturity, or responsibility.
- Evidence of having overcome social, economic, or physical barriers to educational achievement.
- Evidence that enrollment would enhance the cultural, gender, age, economic, racial, or geographic diversity of the student body.
