College of Design Transfer Admission Decision Overview:

Factors considered in the application review process include academic performance, grades in discipline-related courses, a career statement, and the applicant's overall fit for the major. A minimum cumulative 2.80 GPA is preferred for all College of Design programs, however this does not guarantee admission. Additionally, please note that many College of Design programs have limited space due to the nature of the studio learning environment.

Academic Profile of Fall 2013 Admitted College of Design Transfer Applicant

- Number of Admitted Students: 124
- Fall 2013 Average Transfer GPA: 3.22
- Transfer GPA Range Distribution:

  - Below 2.5 = 7%

Transfer Appeals Instructions:

This form is for students appealing for admission to the College of Design due to a late application, or a waitlist or deny decision. If you wish to appeal to a program or college other than the College of Design, please contact that program or college for more information.

Please read the following instructions carefully. The Admissions Appeals Committee cannot review an appeal until all required information is received in the Office of Admissions.

Please Submit the Following Items:

- A completed College of Design Transfer Appeals Form.
- Your current college or university transcript with your most recent grades (transcripts from any University of Minnesota campus are not required).
- A personal statement providing new and compelling information not previously indicated on the application for admission (see instructions on the next page).
- Any additional information that you want the Appeals Committee to consider in reviewing your appeal.
