Will My Courses Transfer?

The Will My Courses Transfer feature in Transferology provides a course search to determine how your completed or in-progress coursework will transfer to another institution.

Step 1: Adding your courses and course information to Transferology

1. Log into transferology.com. You will need to create a free account if this is your first time using Transferology.

2. Select Will My Courses Transfer from the top toolbar.

3. Enter the name of the institution where the courses are being taken or were completed, and select that institution from the dropdown menu options.

4. Choose the semester and year you took the course. Enter the name of the department that offered the course (i.e. Math, History, etc.) and select that department from the dropdown menu options.

Step 2: Select the courses to add to a “Will My Courses Transfer” search

1. Click on the + symbol next to the class.

2. Once you have selected all courses you are searching for, click on the green “Search for Matches” button on top of the list of selected courses.
Step 3: See how courses transfer to the University of Minnesota - Twin Cities

1. Enter University of Minnesota - Twin Cities, or use the filter options on the right-hand side to sort the results.

2. View the matches by clicking on the green Match button next to the name of the institution.

The results page will show you information such as the number of undergraduate students at the institution, the tuition and fees, the type of institution and the percentage of matches for the courses you searched.

Step 4: Viewing the results

Courses will show up in four tabs:
- Matches tab: Courses have been determined to be accepted by the transfer institution.
- Misses tab: Courses have been determined to not transfer to the institution.
- Maybe tab: Courses have not been reviewed by the institution for transfer, visit the U of M’s Admissions webpage to “Submit a course for review” for more information.
- Taken Here tab: Lists courses that were added by the institution that you searched for.

Requirements that a course meets can be viewed by clicking on the “i” symbol next to the course. You can find more information about the University’s Liberal Education requirements here: onestop.umn.edu/academics/education-requirements
