

This guide is for students who've applied using the Common Application for the University of Minnesota that now need to LINK their Application to their Academic Record.

Once you have submitted your Common Application and Set-up an account in the University of Minnesota's Academic Record, you'll need to link your application to your Academic Record, found at z.umn.edu/AcademicRecord.

First, log into your Academic Record account at z.umn.edu/AcademicRecord

Then on the HOME page, click on the “Link Application” button as shown.

Complete the fields as shown. Click “Continue” to link your application and Academic Record. You will get an email verification to confirm this is complete.
