

This guide is for students who've applied using the Common Application for the University of Minnesota that now need to setup an account for the Academic Record.

Please note - the University of Minnesota's has its own Academic Record form. The Common Application Courses and Grades section DOES NOT meet the requirements for the U of M.

To set up a University of Minnesota Academic Record account as a Common Applicant...

First, confirm that you have submitted your Common Application for the University of Minnesota. Complete all sections in the U of M member questions, then use the signature page to submit.

Before you leave the Common Application to begin your Academic Record, write down your Common Application ID number, found in the upper right hand corner of the Common App. You will need to enter this ID number to link your Academic Record and your application.

“Self-Report” section links to Academic Record

What's Next from University of Minnesota Twin Cities

NEXT STEPS
Don't stop now! After the steps below are complete, you will be considered for admission, Honors, and scholarships.

SELF-REPORT your high school course grades and ACT/SAT test score. Simply follow this link to complete the “Academic Record” to tell us about your coursework and grades, and to self-report your test scores). ACTING, DANCE, MUSIC, or NURSING applicants only: Submit your supplemental application.

Acting
Dance
Music
Nursing (Word document)

International applicants only: Submit a copy of your passport at our Secondary School Document Submission Form.

UPDATES OR CHANGES?
If you would like to change any of the information you provided to us when you applied for admission, or would like to add information to your application, please complete the Admissions Application Update Form.

What to Expect Next:
About a week after you submit your application, you will receive an email from admissions@umn.edu (mailto:admissions@umn.edu) with login instructions for Application Tracker, where you can track which materials we have received. Admission decisions will also be posted to Application Tracker.

OK

Once you've submitted your application, you'll see this window. Use the link in the SELF-REPORT section, to get to the University of Minnesota's Academic Record.

z.umn.edu/AcademicRecord

You can also navigate to the Academic Record at z.umn.edu/AcademicRecord

Reset your temporary password

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
Driven to Discover

SELF-REPORTED ACADEMIC RECORD

Welcome to the Self-Reported Academic Record (Academic Record).

As part of your application to the University of Minnesota Twin Cities, your email address and temporary password may have already been created for you. Please use the Password Retrieval link to reset your temporary password and continue your Self-Reported Academic Record.

If you started one of the following applications within the last 2 business days:

1. Common Application
2. Coalition for Access, Affordability, and Success

And are just starting your Academic Record, create an account using the same email as you used on the application. This will help connect your application to your Academic Record.

Learn more: Self-Reported Academic Record Frequently Asked Questions

Self-Reported Academic Record

PLEASE LOGIN

Email

Password

Quick Links

Forgot My Password
Create a New Account

As part of your application to the University of Minnesota Twin Cities, your email address and a temporary password may have already been created for you in the U of M's Academic Record system.

Please use the Password Retrieval link to reset your temporary password and continue your Academic Record.

Applied in last 2 business days?

Just start a new account, using the same email you used on the application.

If you started a Common Application within the last 2 business days, and are just starting your Academic Record now, just create an account using the same email as you used on the application. There is no need to “retrieve your password.” This will be one way we connect your application to your Academic Record.