

Dear Colleague,

The University of Minnesota Share My App Program began several years ago as a way to promote the U of M and all of its campuses to prospective freshmen. Through Share My App, applicants to the U of M Twin Cities can also be considered at our Crookston, Duluth, Morris, and/or Rochester campuses. I am writing to share a few key details about the program.

Share My App Program

The Share My App Program works like this: All fall 2017 freshman applicants who have submitted a complete application for admission to the Twin Cities campus may also be considered for admission at one or more of the U of M's other campuses-- Crookston, Duluth, Morris, and Rochester-- with no additional application and no additional application fee.

Students living in the United States or Canada who submit a complete application to the Twin Cities campus will receive a letter from the University of Minnesota inviting them to also consider the University of Minnesota's other campuses. (A sample of the letter can be viewed below.) Students living outside of the U.S. or Canada will receive the invitation via email. All students will be directed to z.umn.edu/ShareMyApp for more information about the program and to submit their request to participate.

The Share My App invitations are being sent weekly to all students who have submitted all requested U of M TC application materials. In the invitation, students are directed to contact the campus with whom they would like to share their application. If students have questions about admission consideration through the Share My App Program, or questions about the individual system campuses, they may contact each campus directly for more information.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA SYSTEM CAMPUSES:

- University of Minnesota Crookston: 1-800-862-6466
- University of Minnesota Duluth: 1-800-232-1339
- University of Minnesota Morris: 1-888-866-3382
- University of Minnesota Rochester: 1-877-280-4699
- University of Minnesota Twin Cities: 1-800-752-1000

After a student's request to have their application shared with another U of M campus(es) is received, the student's Twin Cities campus application is shared with the requested campus(es). Campus(es) then communicate directly with the student regarding admission decisions.

Meeting individual campus deadlines:

Each of the University of Minnesota campuses determines its own admission and scholarship application deadlines, and these deadlines vary by campus. For example, the Twin Cities campus has a November 1, 2016 priority admission and scholarship deadline. Students interested in the Share My App Program who have questions about individual campus admission application deadlines and scholarship consideration should contact each campus directly for more information. Campus contact information can be found at z.umn.edu/ShareMyAppContact.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Rachelle Hernandez
Associate Vice Provost for Enrollment Management &
Director of Admissions
University of Minnesota Twin Cities

Student Email:

Thank you for submitting your application to the University of Minnesota, one of the nation's premier public research universities. The University has educated local, regional, national, and international leaders since 1851 and we are proud to carry on this tradition of helping students achieve their dreams and reach their educational goals.

As a student who has expressed interest in the University of Minnesota, you are invited to participate in the U of M Share My App Program. Applicants to the Twin Cities campus can also be considered for admission by one or more additional campuses of the University of Minnesota system with no additional application and no additional application fee.
